

Advertise On MyDailyFile's California Capitol Clique

The Best News and Information Resource for California Politics

With a wide range of unique features MyDailyFile keeps the California Capitol Clique informed of events and information relating to the capitol community.

The California Capitol Clique Offers Unique Features Like No Other California Political Site

Our unique features provide information to our users efficiently and effectively. Among one of our unique features is a forum where users can communicate on the latest news.

We Reach a Wide Range of Influential People

Advertising on the California Capitol Clique will reach a wide range of political professionals. Our users consist of lobbyists, political consultants, elected officials, and their staff.

Features include:

My News: Top News stories relating to the California Capitol Clique.

My Calendar: The calendar is comprehensive and interactive. It shows fundraisers, protests, legislative hearings, and many more events concerning the California Capitol.

My Resources: This page provides links to press releases, important documents, and other interesting facts and figures relied on by capitol professionals.

My Forum: The forum offers a place where those within the capitol community can ask questions, gossip, and communicate on the latest hot news.

My Links: This page provides all the links you will need too connect with California Government.

My Videos: The California Capitol Clique shows historical and educational legislative floor debates.

Advertising Opportunities

We have limited advertising space and advertisements are sold on a first come first serve basis. We offer three placement options. MyDailyFile offers one page placement ads, rotating ads from page to page, and ads on our daily emails that our sent to our subscribers. MyDailyFile will work with you to meet your advertising needs.

To Place An Advertisement

Contact us at: mike@mydailyfile.com or Call us @ 916 469-903